

Building Peace on the Ground: Sharing of Good Practices
Promoting Peaceful Societies: Towards a World without War
Thursday 30 November 2017

- War does not solve conflicts. War should be abolished.
- Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons
- What about imposing peace?
- When the shooting starts, talk is done
- Different types of wars
- Occupation is not legitimate defence
- Christian militias
- Preventing genocides and massive human rights violations
- Technology and ethics are constantly evolving
- Disarmament for development
- Weapons kill, even if they are not used
- War should be de-institutionalised + MIC
- Walls, fences and mining fields
- Invest in conflict-preventive peace missions
- To the causes of war
- Break the spiral of violence
- Christianity is nonviolent and reconciled
- Violence - not in the name of religion
- Churches are peacebuilding entities

Fr. Paul Lansu

Senior Policy Advisor, Pax Christi International